

Founded in 1984, China Food News is the most professional and authoritative media outlet in the Chinese food industry. Published daily Monday to Friday, China Food News aims to act as a guide and leader on issues relating to food production and consumption. China Food News covers a wide range of industry topics and has won broad recognition from a large readership for its professionalism, authoritative and informative coverage and quality service.