

RSPO

Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil

Promoting the Production and Use of Sustainable Palm Oil

 RT⁹
Sabah
2011 Borneo

RSPO Certified
Transforming the market. Together.

Standards & Certification: progress this year and next

Adam Harrison, WWF International – S&C SC Chair
aharrison@wwfscotland.org.uk

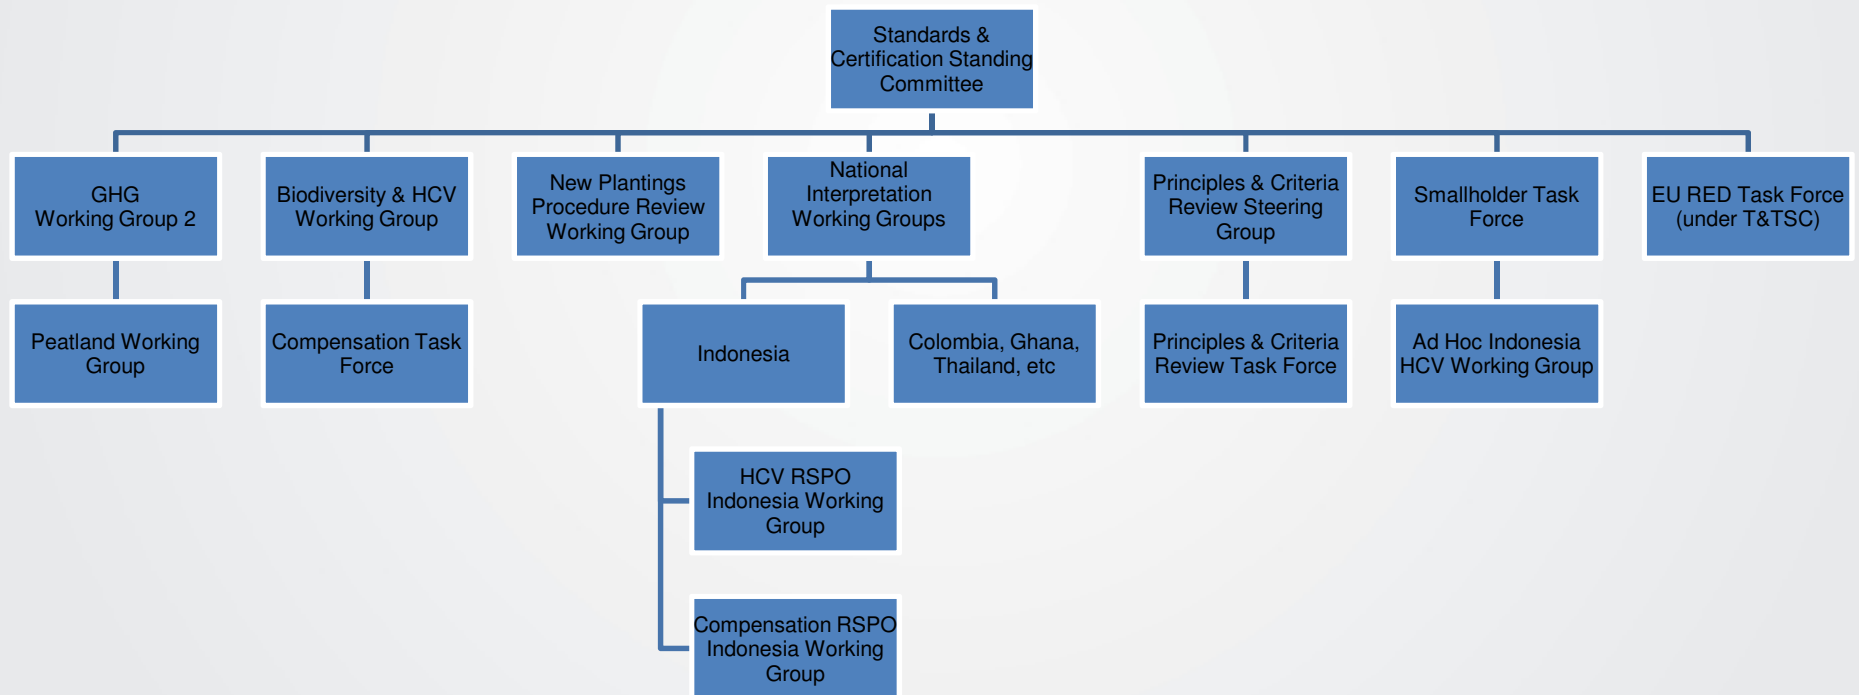

Standards and Certification

- Membership
- Responsibilities
- Progress this year
- Tasks for the coming year

Membership

- Adam Harrison WWF International
- Johan Verburg Oxfam International
- Gert Vandersmissen SIAT
- Norman Jiwan Sawit Watch
- Tim Killeen Conservation International
- Simon Siburat Wilmar
- Edi Suhardi PT Agro Harapan Lestari
- Salahudin Yaacob RSPO Secretariat

More than just the committee

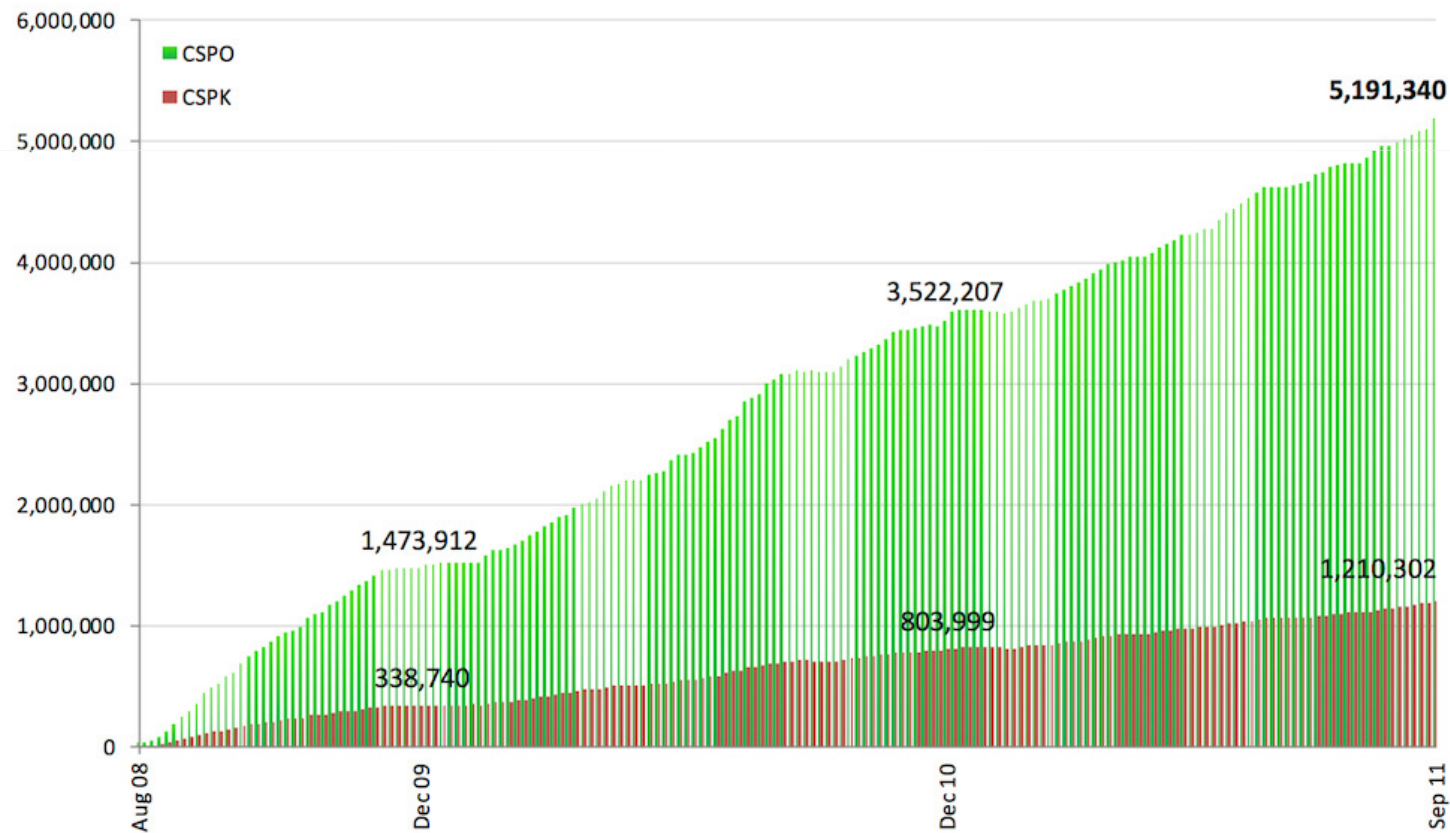

Responsibilities

- Developing and reviewing the standard
- Ensuring quality of interpretations
- Guidance and indicators
- Developing monitoring of its impacts
- Ensuring capacity to deliver the standard

Progress since last year

C3. CSPO & CSPK Annual Production Capacity (mt)

Progress since last year

- Certification:
 - 5.2 Mt of certified CSPO and 1.2 Mt of certified PKO
 - 1 M ha of certified plantations
 - 28 growers – 123 POMs
 - Malaysia, Indonesia, PNG, Brazil, Solomon Islands, Colombia

Progress since last year

- Interpretations:
 - Ghana and Thailand – national
 - Brazil, Colombia and Ivory Coast – local
 - System for a streamlined national interpretation for smaller producer countries agreed

Progress since last year

- Guidance:
 - New Plantings Procedure reviewed and clearer guidance will be coming out
 - Developed a procedure for compensation for land cleared without HCV assessment
 - Better guidance on HCVs – tools as well as policies
 - A position on greenhouse gases and peat

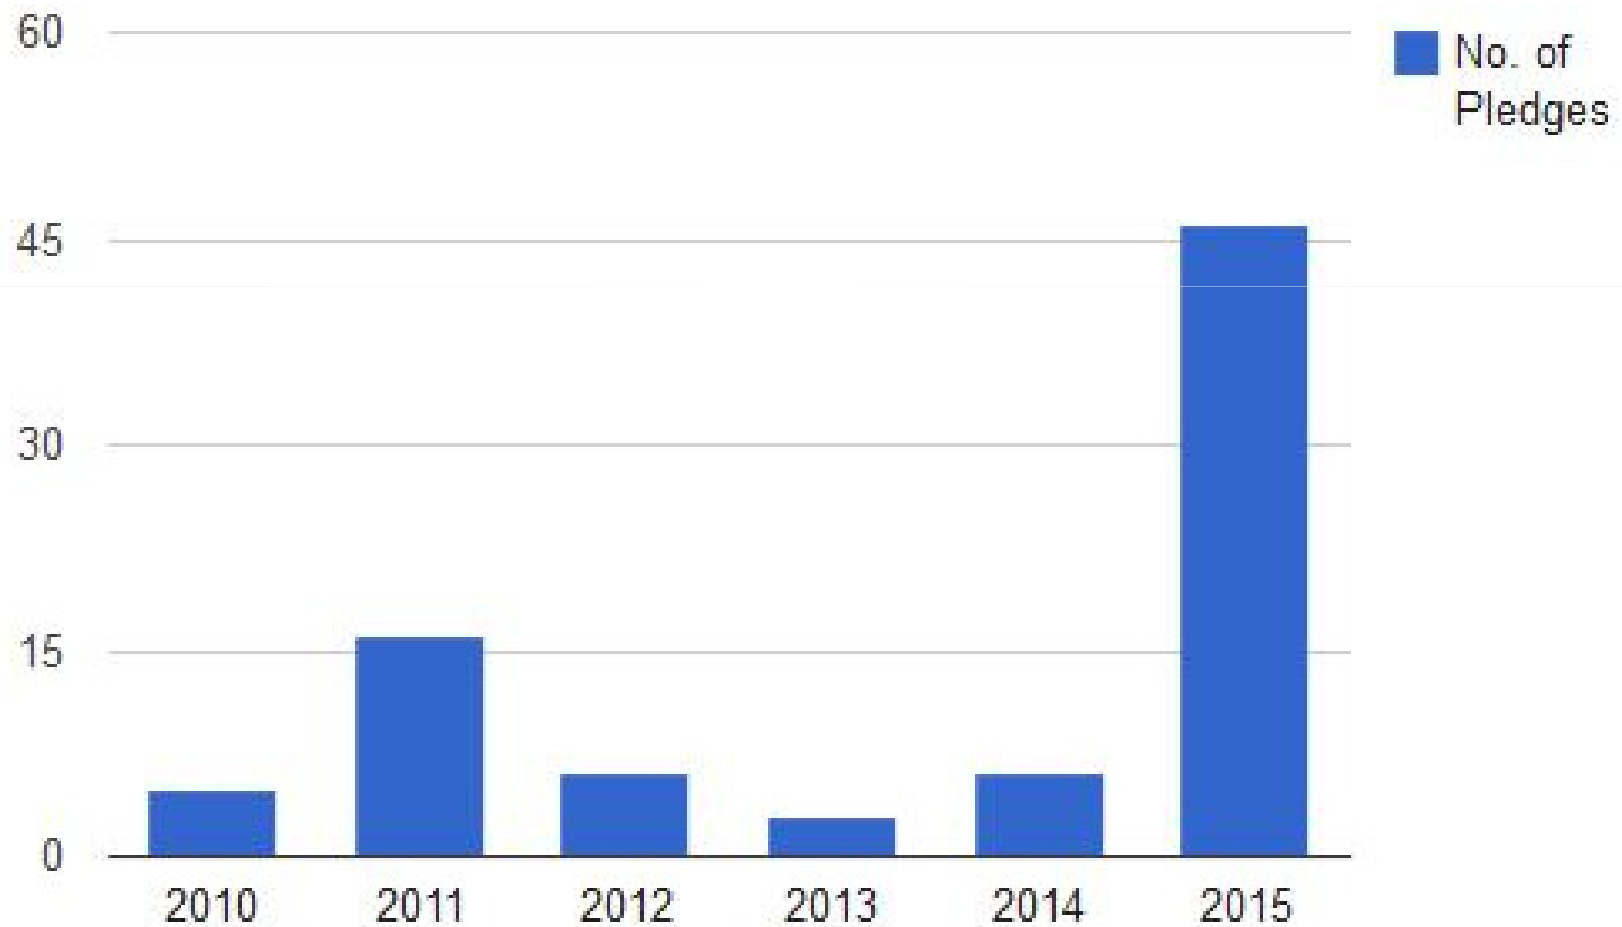

Progress since last year

- Reporting progress:
 - New annual reporting system
 - Requires data on volumes and areas of all members – to better show individual progress
 - One reporting and on timebound plans
 - On the rspo.org website

Progress since last year

Progress since last year

Tasks for the coming year

- Review of the Principles and Criteria
- Measuring the impacts of standards and certification
- Improving the reporting of progress by members
- Improving access to data on member progress